FRANCEINTEGRATED LANGUAGE/AREA STUDY17 MARCH TO 23 MAY

This first full-time intermediate-level French course will be given in Room 2129 "I" Building from 17 March through 23 May. Consult the descriptive news item in your December 1957 OTR Bulletin, page 9. Applications for registration of employees must be submitted to the Registrar immediately.

The course is intended for graduates of our Basic (Full-Time) language course or for other qualified employees desiring to refresh their French.

Primary objective of this course will be to develop the student's command of the current spoken language used in France, Belgium, and Switzerland, as well as in North Africa and Vietnam. Emphasis will be placed on vocabulary concerned with public affairs. Area knowledge - through use of teaching materials dealing with France and its global problems - will be the principal by-product of the course. A few hours will be devoted to intelligence terminology.

The class will distribute its time during an average week as follows:

	Hours Per Week
Contemporary France:
Private study in two textbooks	5
Oral questions and answers based on area information text, La France au XXe Siècle (Hachette)	3
Oral questions and answers based on area problems text drawn from press materials	3
Discussion on assignments and/or current events	3
Lecture and discussion	2
Films	1
History of France:
Private study in text, Histoire de l'Antiquité à 1939 (Hachette - "Cours d'Histoire Malet-Isaac")	5
Oral questions and answers based on text	2½
Lecture and discussion	2
Language Study Related to Subject Matter:
Grammar drill	7½
Vocabulary drill	2
Intelligence Activities:
Organizations	½
Operations	½
